Russia Won't Help Free Nations Oust Reds From Korea

MOSCOW—(AP)—Russia last night turned down a United States request for the Soviet Union's help in getting North Korean forces out of South Korea.

A note addressed by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko to U. S. Ambassador Alan G. Kirk said the Soviet government does not approve of the "interference of foreign powers in the internal affairs of Korea."

Blame Shifted

The U. S. had asked also for assurance that the Soviet government would "not take upon itself the responsibility for this unprovoked and unjustified attack."

Russia replied that responsibility for the fighting in Korea "lies with the South Korean authorities and with those who stand behind them."

There was no elaboration in the note of the phrase "those who stand behind them."

Scrap Settled By Democrats

Michigan Group Will Light Peace Pipe

DETROIT—(AP)—Unless some objectors surprises by showing up and blowing out the match, the Democratic state central committee expects to light and smoke a peace pipe today.

The committee called a late afternoon meeting for the appointment of Neil Staebler, the party's financial director, as the new state chairman.

This would fill the vacancy left by Governor Williams' appointment of Hicks Griffiths as a Wayne county probate judge.

Staebler, Ann Arbor businessman, is the governor's choice for the seat of leadership.

For much of the time that Griffiths occupied it he found it warm. By no means did all Democrats approve his policies as state chairman.

Last night, however, party leaders here, with Governor Williams, paid their respects in full harmony to Griffiths at a farewell and congratulatory dinner.

The governor, in a speech, predicted that his party would win "at least one house, probably both," in this year's legislative elections.

"It will be largely because Hicks was in there pitching," Williams said.

Air Currents Pull Passenger Out Of Plane Over Virginia

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Civil Aeronautics Administration received a report from its airways communications base at Norfolk, Va., that a passenger had been sucked out of a plane over Accomac, Va., early today.

The report said a rear cargo door of a plane owned by Argonaut Airlines blew open and air currents pulled out the passenger who was standing near the door. The passenger was identified as James Trotter, of Miami Springs, Fla.

Bread Supply Back In Los Angeles Area

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Los Angeles has bread with its butter today.

Nineteen hundred striking AFL bakers returned to work today after being off the job since June 17. They voted yesterday to accept an employer's offer of a 5-cent hourly wage increase.

Taft Proposes List Of Truman Policy Errors

Good Campaign Data Offered GOP

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Taft of Ohio proposed today that Republicans draw up a formal report criticizing what he called the mistakes of the Truman administration in foreign policy. He said it could be used as a campaign document.

Taft's suggestion was made to a reporter in the face of President Truman's comment yesterday that the Ohio Senator had made a political statement that was uncalled for in demanding the resignation of Secretary of State Acheson.

The Soviet government said it had "confirmed its traditional principle of non-interference in the internal affairs of other states" by withdrawing its troops from Korea "earlier than did the U. S. government."

UN ORDER IGNORED

(The Russians on Dec. 31, 1948, announced they had withdrawn all their occupation troops from North Korea, but a United Nations commission later was refused permission to visit Communist-dominated northern area.

The president told his news conference yesterday that there had not been any dispute in his cabinet over the Korean action. There wasn't a word of truth in the report that he had reversed Acheson, the president said. He added in a sentence he authorized reporters to quote directly:

"I think the political statement of Mr. Taft at this time is entirely called for."

MISTAKES CONFESSED

Taft did not reply publicly, saying: "I am not going to engage in any controversy with the president now."

The Russians denied a statement in the American note that the Soviet representative had refused to take part in the security council meeting June 25, at which a cease-fire in Korea was ordered.

The Soviet government, it's noted, could not take part in security council meetings "since by virtue of the attitude of the U. S. government, the permanent member of the security council—China—was not admitted to the council."

(Russia insists that Communist China should be admitted to the U. N. as the only legal representative of China.)

This, the note declared, "made it impossible for the security council to take decisions which have legal force."

Pike Called Unfit For Atomic Post

By OLIVER W. DE WOLF

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senate members of the joint atomic committee showed little sign today of heading President Truman's expressed wish that they reconsider their turn-down of Sumner T. Pike for a new four-year term on the atomic energy commission.

Mr. Truman made the suggestion at his news conference yesterday. Five of the nine Senators on the Senate-House committee had voted earlier in the day to ask the Senate to reject Pike's nomination.

Under the law, Pike steps off

President Applauded For Stand In Korea

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Telegrams and letters applauding President Truman's stand against Communism in the Far East are pouring into the White House.

President Secretary Charles G. Ross said the communications approving the president's course outnumber those opposed by him.

McMahon told reporters he would make no attempt to seek senate action on Pike until after August 4. The Senate usually goes along with committee recommendations and Pike's backers conceded privately that his confirmation was an open question.

Mr. Truman described Pike as one of the commission's ablest and most faithful members. He said he could not understand the vote against him.

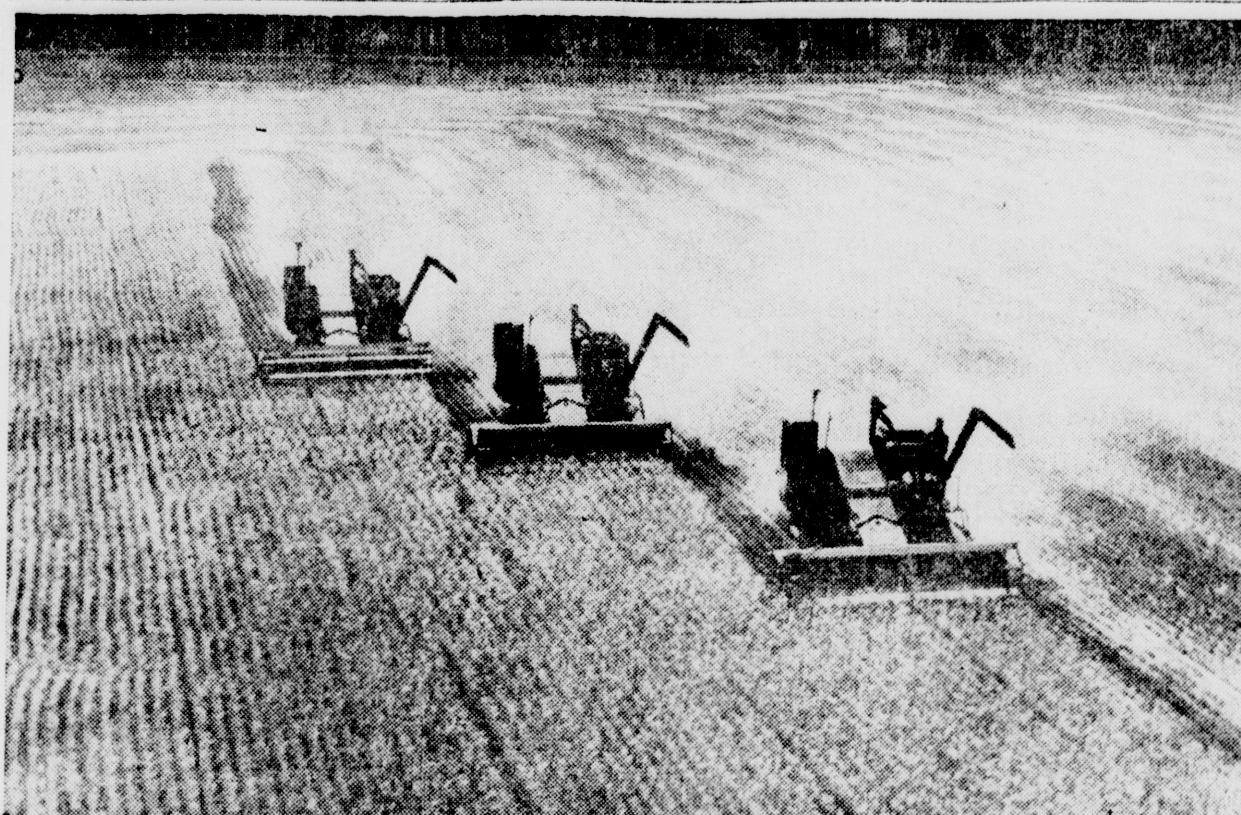

Four Republicans and one Democrat, Senator Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado, combined to put the 58-year-old Maine Republican at least temporarily out of one. He said around 1,200 communications, mostly telegrams, had been received as of yesterday and that the letters were still coming in.

Kunzig Advised He Has No Job

Liquor Control Cuts Off $10,380 Salary

DETROIT—(AP)—Louis A. Kunzig was formally notified yesterday of his "layoff" as executive director of the state liquor control commission.

It was another in the long series of incidents in the fight over Kunzig's $10,380 a year job.

The two Democratic members of the commission, John Kozaren, chairman, and David M. Martin, sent a notice to Kunzig that there were no funds to pay his salary.

Harry Henderson, the Republican member, wasn't present for a vote. He was reported at Harbor Springs.

Ostensibly, the funds weren't available because of Governor Williams' veto of that item in the general budget.

The state Senate is scrapping with Williams over the legality of the veto. The state supreme court ultimately may have to decide that issue.

In the meantime, confusion seems to attend the whole affair even more so than formerly.

Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., is ignoring the governor's veto.

Decatur Offers $250 For Airplane Jump Without Parachute

DECATUR, Ill.—(AP)—If you want to make a fast $250—and you meet qualifications—be in Decatur Sunday.

The chamber of commerce is offering the sum for jumping out of an airplane at least 50 feet above the ground—without a parachute.

The tongue-in-cheek C. of C. jesters made one provision: you must be a mother-in-law.

Foreign Arms Assist For $1,222,500,000 Approved By Senate

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate gave smashing approval today to a $1,222,500,000 foreign arms aid program. It includes $16,000,000 to strengthen the military forces of South Korea and the Philippines.

The measure now goes to the House where quick action is expected because of the international tension.

On another front, the Senate Appropriations committee neared final agreement on the huge Marshall plan program which carries $100,000,000 in economic aid for South Korea, and many millions more for other friendly nations.

The committee tentatively cut $250,000,000 out of the European recovery program yesterday—reducing the third-year Marshall plan spending to $2,727,000,000.

No such economy move threatened.

As the bill now stands, a nation buying new arms would pay the full cost. Sales of excess arms and equipment would be made either at market value, scrap value, or 10 per cent of the original gross cost—whatever might be larger.

When adopted to keep state government floating fiscally in the depths of depression, the legislature thought $30,000,000 would be a good take from it.

The revenue department called collections in June on May retail business "phenomenal."

June collections will total $18,955,377 and bring the fiscal year total to $199,472,755, or nearly $5,000,000 more than last year. The June total is $1,935,000 more than last June.

Deputy Revenue Commissioner Clarence W. Locke said the record is even more amazing because collections for the first six months of the year were about $1,000,000 below the preceding year.

He attributed the increase to the 1949 sales tax law amendments sponsored by Senator George N. Higgins (R-Ferndale), the employment of 18 additional field examiners to check up on cheaters, better business in the past two or three months, higher retail prices, and the new annual return form required of merchants which makes tax evasion more difficult.

Democratic leader Lucas of Illinois said the tax-writing Senate finance committee will go to work on the tax bill behind closed doors Monday.

"Only brief hearings are necessary," he said.

Republican Senate leaders pledged cooperation on speedy action but carefully avoided support for the $433,000,000 boost in corporate taxes, or for other new-revenue provisions voted by the House.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), GOP policy chairman and a member of the finance committee, told a reporter he thought "not more than two weeks of committee hearings would be necessary."

The bill would wipe out or reduce wartime sales taxes on such items as furs, jewelry, watches, luggage, cosmetics, auto tires, movie and sports tickets, night clubs, cameras and film, telephone bills, travel tickets and many others.

The House moves to make the tax slash "veto proof" by boosting corporate taxes and plugging a number of loopholes in federal revenue laws raised considerable criticism, especially among Republicans.

Senate To Speed Tax-Cutting Bill

BY EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Top-speed action was promised today by Senate leaders on a House-passed bill to cut excise taxes by $1,010,000,000.

The measure whipped through the House yesterday by a whopping 375 to 14 margin. Only the Korea crisis appeared to cloud the bill's prospects in the Senate. Some lawmakers have questioned the advisability of trimming excises in the face of the current war scare.

Democratic leader Lucas of Illinois said the tax-writing Senate finance committee will go to work on the tax bill behind closed doors Monday.

The last hour for filing signatures for a place on the September 12 primary election ballot is 4 p. m., Monday (EST).

Four of the five announced Republican candidates for governor have filed, three of them entering the lists formally yesterday. Only Dr. Eugene C. Keyes of Dearborn has still to file.

Governor Williams filed 23,739 signatures from 70 counties to seek a second term. So far no Democratic primary opponent has been signed.

Cong. Albert J. Engel of Muskegon, drove up in his campaign house trailer to file 14,921 signatures from 41 counties in his drive for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Secretary of State Fred M. Alper, Jr., former governor Harry F. Kelly and Mayor Thomas Leith of Brighton filed earlier—all GOP candidates for governor.

Delta Transit Plans Changes

Buses Are Rebuilt, Schedule Revamped

Modernization of equipment and revamping of operating schedules are improvements contemplated by the Delta Transit company, which was taken over on June 15 by George M. Hore of Calumet and Frederick G. Hore of Marquette.

One of the company's four buses was rebuilt and put on the run yesterday. The other three also will be modernized.

Frederick G. Hore, manager of the Delta Transit company, said a study is being made of the transportation needs of Escanaba and vicinity with a view toward improving schedules.

One change has been made already. Effective July 1, the 10:15 p. m. bus, which has run from Escanaba to Wells, will continue to Gladstone, and will depart there on the return trip at 10:45 p. m.

The Delta Transit company now serves Escanaba, Wells and Gladstone, and also operates a passenger and mail run to Ralph. Consideration is now being given to a plan to extend service to the Escanaba Paper company mill at Groos and the Harnischfeger corporation's truck crane plant near the fairgrounds.

The Hore interests operate five buses in Calumet, Hubbell, Mohawk and Laurium. They also have been operating since last October in Marquette, where they have three buses.

Begin Hearing On Discovery

Norton Seeks Order For Accounting

BULLETIN:
Hearing on a motion to discover information on management of radio station WDBC was adjourned this afternoon by Circuit Judge Glenn W. Jackson until July 10.

Hearing began today in Delta county circuit court before Judge Glenn W. Jackson on a motion for discovery in the suit by John P. Norton against Frank J. Lindenthal and George D. Lindenthal to obtain court order to compel an accounting by the Lindenthals of their official conduct of the Delta Broadcasting company.

Norton is owner and publisher of the Escanaba Daily Press and president of the Delta Broadcast company.

Frank Lindenthal is secretary-treasurer of the Delta Broadcasting company and his brother, George, is general manager of the company, which operates radio station WDBC.

The court previously issued an order restraining Frank Lindenthal from disposing of or transferring any of the stock or property of the Delta Broadcasting company while the suit is pending or until further order of the court.

The hearing on the plaintiff's motion for discovery has been delayed because of the illness of George D. Lindenthal, who is recuperating following surgery in a hospital at Rochester.

Counsel for Mr. Norton also asked that an answer be filed by George Lindenthal when his condition will permit.

The defendant Frank Lindenthal has been asked to show why the court should not grant Norton's motion for discovery.

Norton is asking that the court order Frank Lindenthal to give information and produce records which it is claimed have been denied to auditors employed by Norton.

This information, the plaintiff contends, has been requested of but not delivered by the defendants, and must be obtained to properly plead and file a bill of complaint in the suit to compel an accounting.

Aronson Heads Civil Defense

Meeting Will Be Held Next Week

The appointment of City Manager A. V. Aronson as civil defense director in Escanaba was announced today by Mayor Peter Logan. Aronson will attend a meeting of community civil defense directors in East Lansing, Thursday, July 6, at the office of State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard, who is state director of civil defense.

Aronson's appointment was made by Mayor Logan upon receipt of a telegram from Governor G. Mennen Williams who requested the appointment of a civil defense director here.

The telegram from Governor Williams follows:

"In view of the advisability of accelerating civil defense preparedness, I am requesting you to immediately appoint a local civil defense director who shall be made responsible for directing these activities in your community and also act in liaison with the state director of civil defense. You are also requested to send your director to a meeting to be held at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning, July 6, at the Michigan State Police headquarters, East Lansing. Please notify State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard of the name of your director as soon as possible."

Local Yachtsmen Salute Start Of Sailing Season

Motors are being tuned-up on power craft in the Escanaba yacht basin and on the bay white sails are dipping before the wind these days in salute to the opening of the 1950 boating season.

Escanaba Yacht Club members, with individual projects underway and a collective job being rushed to completion, are impatiently waiting for summer weather. Strong winds and unseasonable cold have delayed the start of sailing this spring.

The collective project now being rushed to completion is the EYC, a club house at Sand Point, a building constructed and financed by the members. The site was leased from the city and the grounds are now being landscaped by city park crews.

COMPLETE CLUB HOUSE
The club house will be ready July 9 to receive visiting yachtsmen from other Green Bay ports who will arrive here on that date for the start of the EYC cruising race—a week-long event that highlights the summer sailing season.

Already at anchor in the basin, and ready to sail to Menominee to lead the cruising fleet here, is the schooner Rose of Sharon, owned by C. W. Stoll. Other craft launched for the season here are John J. Mitchell's Lucky Star, Al Star's Windsong, and the Celeste II owned by Bill Nolden.

Harold Flath has readied the Marjorie for the season after purchasing her from John Walsh. Joe Shipman will launch the Sandra III this week, and smaller craft of the seagull class, owned by Ted Sura and Dick Hoyler are already in the water.

EVENTS SCHEDULED
In the power division of the EYC are the Lee W., owned by Al Wiles; John Bissell's Sandy, a new Chris Craft sports model purchased by Herb Norton, and the Velamo owned by George Newton of Iron Mountain.

The schedule of events for the season include the following:
July 9—Sea gull elimination race for the Gust Aap trophy.

July 9—Arrival of visiting yachtsmen from Green Bay ports in the start of the EYC cruising race.

July 10—Cruise from Escanaba to Washington Island.

July 11—Second leg of the cruise to Ephraim.

July 12—Fish Creek to Sturgeon Bay.

July 13—Sturgeon Bay to Menominee.

July 14—Open house at Menominee.

July 15—M&M Yacht Club 100-mile race.

Aug. 26—EYC Autumn regatta.

Sept. 2—EYC Labor Day cruise to Washington Island.

Nov. 25—Winners' dinner, House of Ludington.

GOOD SEASON AHEAD
Several visiting pleasure boats harbored here last weekend, and more will be here over the Fourth

Jail Terms Proposed For Lawmakers Who Take Pay For Writing

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. O'Sullivan (D-Neb.) wants a law to fine and jail members of Congress who accept money for making speeches or writing articles.

O'Sullivan put his idea into a bill which he introduced in the House yesterday. He wants a penalty of $10,000 and ten years in prison for violators.

The Nebraskan said in a statement that his bill "followed disclosure that Senator Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) has been paid $10,000 for writing an article for the Lustron (prefab housing) corporation."

Those taking the course are: Miss Ida Makrinen, Rudyard; Miss Lillie Rose Senger, Wallace; Mrs. Pearl Nixon, Pickford; Harold Littlefield, Lowell, Mass.; now a graduate student at the University of Michigan; Thomas Walin, Marquette, teaching at Marenisco; Thomas Gerovac, Marenisco, teaching at Perkins; and four students from the Northern Michigan College of Education, Fred Benzie and Rudolph Mosca, Iron Mountain; John Barda, Chassell, and F. Bayne Weeks, Menominee.

In view of the advisability of accelerating civil defense preparedness, I am requesting you to immediately appoint a local civil defense director who shall be made responsible for directing these activities in your community and also act in liaison with the state director of civil defense. Bark River Man Is Arrested For Theft

Delor Wellman, 20, of Bark River township, yesterday was taken to Menominee for arraignment on a charge of breaking and entering following his arrest by Sheriff William E. Miron.

Sheriff Miron said that he had recovered an outboard motor, field glasses, and two bows with arrows taken from the bay shore home of Elder Daniel Newman two miles south of the Delta-Menominee county line on M-35.

Because the alleged breaking and entering occurred in Menominee county, Wellman was turned over to Menominee county authorities.

For the first two years of her college education, Miss Loveland attended Lawrence college at Appleton, Wis.

At NMCE she was an active member of the Beta Omega Tau sorority, the Social Science club and the Wesley Foundation.

Georgia's County Unit System Is Wrong, But So Is Electoral College

AMERICA IS the land of democracy, where the will of the majority is supposed to govern. In view of that circumstance, the political developments in Georgia are strange, indeed.

Here in Michigan, if a candidate for governor gets more votes than any other candidate, he gets himself elected as the No. 1 man in state government. So it is in most of the other states in the union. But not in Georgia.

Georgia held a state election this week. It was a primary election, but in Georgia

It's Firecracker Time, So Watch Your Step

INASMUCH AS THE SALE and firing of firecrackers are illegal in Michigan except for public displays conducted by men experienced in this work, it would seem that the hazards of fireworks would be negligible in this state. Unfortunately, such is not the case and every year preceding and during the July 4 holiday some residents of Michigan are injured by firecrackers.

These explosives are making their annual appearance again in Escanaba. Up to now, no one has been injured. We have been lucky. Parents will do themselves, their children and their neighbors a good turn if they will snatch the firecrackers from the small fry before someone gets an eye poked out, or before someone dies of a heart attack induced by the surprise blast of a giant firecracker.

There will be a public fireworks display at the Ludington Park Tuesday night. That should satisfy anyone with a yen for Roman candles and July 4 bombs.

Back To Splendid Isolation?

BRITAIN'S friends in America can only feel rather embarrassed at the shortsighted, partisan, isolationist policy statement of the British Labor Party on the issue of European unity.

Prime Minister Clement Attlee since has made some effort in the House of Commons to convince Europe and us that his government does not go along the whole way with this party view. Still, he appears only to have muddied matters worse.

To Americans it sounds plain enough: Britain is selfishly bent on insulating herself from socialist experiments at whatever cost in vitally needed co-operation with the remainder of free Europe. At a moment in history when her traditional leadership would count most heavily, she seems intent on turning inward and letting Europe go hang.

Free peoples of the Atlantic area can only hope this manifesto does not reflect the sentiment of all Britons.

Sequel To Balcony Scene

REMEMBER the fuss a couple of years back about President Truman's new White House balcony? The Fine Arts Commission opposed the thing, saying it would destroy the architectural perfection of the White House. But the President ordered the balcony built anyhow.

Recently he took quiet reprisal against the stubborn commissioners who tried to upset his plans. He picked four new members to replace those men on the commission. Not even artistic integrity is safe from political punishment in Washington.

Questions and Answers

Q—When were railway dining cars introduced?

A—The first ones were operated between Philadelphia and Baltimore in 1863. There were two of these cars, each fitted with an eating bar, steam box and other restaurant fixtures. The food, however, was prepared at the terminal stations and placed on the cars.

Q—What is soil fumigation?

A—Soil fumigation is becoming common practice on American farms; it involves putting special chemicals well into the soil to kill harmful bacterial and animal life.

Q—When was the Pacific Ocean first crossed by an airplane?

A—In 1928, when Capt. C. Kingsford-Smith and his crew in the "Southern Cross" flew from Oakland, Calif., to Australia, with two stops en route.

Q—What is the derivation of the word Anthology?

A—A Greek word meaning a collection or gathering of flowers.

Double Play

When it comes the final inning and they've got a man on first, and a double play's the thing the local team is needin' worst, there's a holler in the grandstand that there's only one away, and they're yellin' at Old Lefty that he's got to save the day. But his arm is gettin' weaker and his lead is but a run, and the batter waves his bluejock just as if he's got it won.

First the weary southpaw grooves the plate and all the rooters groan, as the hitter busts one far afield, and sure the lead is blown. But the hit is foul by inches, and he takes three pitches quick, but they're wide, and now it's certain that Old Lefty's lost his kick. Then he serves him up a fast one—it's a foul back to the net, and the crowd is really prayin' while the batter's gettin' set.

It's a hard one down the middle and he cracks a screamin' blow, but the shortstop gets it on the run—to second goes his throw. And his partner's there to touch the bag—to first he whips the ball, gets the runner by a single step—the ump, he roars "That's all." It's a happy trail to showers and a satisfying day, for there ain't no sweeter endin' than a classy double play.

Merry-Go-Round

WAshington—The emergency cabinet met immediately after the attack on South Korea was one of the most dramatic since V-E day.

The president had just flown in from Independence, Mo., to find Secretary of State Acheson, Secretary of Defense Johnson, Secretary of the Army Pace, Secretary of the Navy Matthews, Secretary of Air Force, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff Omar Bradley, Air Force Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg and various others waiting for him.

"First I must call Mrs. Truman and tell her I've arrived safely; I always do that," the president said, referring to the fact that Mrs. Truman was still in Missouri.

"You make yourselves at home," he continued. "I've ordered dinner and after we eat we'll sit around and talk this thing out. I want to hear from every one of you."

After the meal the military chiefs gave their estimates of the Korean situation. Secretary Johnson said he expected the South Koreans to hold. General Bradley was more cautious, pointing out that it was a difficult country to defend. He said he expected rapid gains by the Communists on the first day, after which he expected three South Korean divisions to form a defense line, perhaps south of Seoul.

RUSSIA'S REAL GOAL IRAN?

Bradley raised the important question of whether the Korean attack was a main Soviet blow, or merely a diversionary tactic aimed to attract our attention away from other areas. He warned that the main Russian punch might be at Iran, since Russia was badly in need of oil. He also warned that Iran was weak and cautioned that we should not overcommit ourselves in Korea.

Navy and Air Force officials reported that both their branches were strong in the north Pacific and ready for any emergency. They were less cautious than General Bradley.

The most dramatic statement of the evening was made by Secretary Acheson. It was his plea which tipped the scales in the president's mind and caused Truman to make the momentous decision to intervene actively in Korea. Acheson, the man who has been pilloried in the Senate for allegedly concealing Communists in the state department told the group that if we let Korea down, we would suffer a crippling defeat in the eyes of the world.

A hundred years from now, the Upper Peninsula and the rest of the Lake Superior region will still be producing iron ore for that part of the nation's steel industry which is based on the Great Lakes. That is the prediction made to a meeting of Michigan editors at Marquette the other night by C. J. Stakel, Ishpeming, in charge of Cleveland Cliffs' mining operations.

Mr. Stakel is not alone in his views. They have been expressed by others in a position to know the facts, which differ widely from some of the misleading propaganda which has been heard so often in the last few years.

The explanation lies not only in the anticipated development of new sources of direct shipping ore, but in the perfecting of techniques for concentration of lean ores and extraction of ore from iron bearing rocks, known in Minnesota as taconite and in Michigan as jasper. In the iron ore formations, there are the proved reserves, the one which is in "sight" and is being mined. In addition, there are "probable" reserves which may be revealed by future explorations, and "possible" reserves which also may be found in the future.

The future of this industry is not being left to guesswork. New techniques of mining and processing have been developed and a vast research program is underway to find ways of separating ore from the rock of the iron formation.

Future mining is not the only bright prospect of the Upper Peninsula. New timber growth now is in balance with cutting and, while much of the new growth is still a long way from merchantable size, and there may be a period of low production for 25 years, in time to come the Upper Peninsula will regain its position as a producer of high grade hardwoods, such as maple, birch and others.

IT'S DRINKING DRIVERS (Christian Science Monitor)

"Drunken drivers" is a misnomer. It is drinking drivers rather than drunken drivers who cause most of the havoc and tragedy on American highways, according to a man who should know, Burton W. Marsh, traffic and safety engineer of the American Automobile Association.

Mr. Marsh believes a large portion of the motoring public does not realize the extent to which driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor is "death's chief handyman" in road disasters. So he told a meeting recently of the highway safety committee of the American Automobile Association.

But the worst hazard among the drinking drivers, the AAA expert pointed out, is not the man who has become thoroughly intoxicated but rather the fellow who merely has "had a few drinks."

Where the actual drunk "passes out" before he gets behind a steering wheel, the man who thinks he can hold his liquor does not realize that his senses and reactions have been dulled and that his normal inhibitions have given way to an inflated ego.

This is the stuff of which accidents are made. The driver who prides himself that he does not drink to excess is not a safe driver. Safety lies simply in not drinking.

TRUMAN TAKES RESPONSIBILITY

After the president had made the decision, he told his advisers that he himself would take full responsibility.

"I think I know the Russians and how they operate better than any man," he told his military and diplomatic chiefs.

"I've been dealing with them for five years. At the slightest sign of weakness they take advantage of you. They respect firmness and firmness alone. We must show them that we mean business—that is the only way we can prevent another world war."

Truman added that no man wanted peace more than he or had tried harder to get along with the Russians.

NOTE

The state department believes mere arms aid won't help Korea; that she must have U. S. troops.

WHAT IS SOIL FUMIGATION?

Dr. Arthur B. Langlie is at present negotiating for a lower price for the ferry properties than that for which the Puget Sound Navigation Company is willing to sell.

Gov. Arthur B. Langlie is at present negotiating for a lower price for the ferry properties than that for which the Puget Sound Navigation Company is willing to sell.

The proposed second bridge across the sound would start from one of two points which extend from the mainland, West Point or Alki Point, and would be almost three miles in length.

Looking at the map, construction of such a bridge appears relatively simple. Actually, the difficulties are staggering. For one thing, the passage must be kept completely navigable for the heavy shipping of Puget Sound and for military movements in and out of the Puget Sound Navy Yard.

The solution might be a high suspension bridge, but not in this water from 630 to 800 feet in depth. This is the problem and the challenge.

Floating-Type Bridge

It has been countered by Mr. Andrew's proposal for a floating tube-type of bridge. This would be located 50 feet below the surface of the water and would be held in place by huge cables fastened to anchors on the sea bottom. It would be a twin tube, carrying four lanes of traffic and would be tied to the land by bridge approaches. It would be provided with fresh air by means of ventilating towers.

In the bridge survey, the two proposals for crossing the sound will be considered, the Vashon twin bridge and the submerged tube. Of the two, the Vashon structure is more generally accepted; it serves a more populated area, involves no unfamiliar engineering processes, and would cost less.

But why not have both? The question grows in public interest. The initial cost would be enormous. There would be, not only the two major bridges, but auxiliary bridges and new highway approaches. A general estimate is that the entire project would run as high as $100,000,000. The Vashon structure it is estimated would cost around $35,000,000.

Vashon Island Plan

The current survey may be preliminary but it is not starting from scratch. Charles A. Andrew, chief consulting engineer of the Washington Toll Bridge Authority, already is prepared with plans and recommendations for the bridging. Mr. Andrew is responsible for the design and construction of the Lake Washington Floating Bridge in Seattle, the success of which has had a good share in selling the public on the advantages of bridging Puget Sound.

And why not? Such words as cactus, genus, etc., have been a part of the English language for centuries, and it is quite proper, indeed it is best usage, to form their plurals according to English rules. And the newer dictionaries show the English plurals as first choice.

There are in English many words of Latin origin which end in -us, of which cactus, genus, hippocampus, nucleus, octopus, radius, syllabus, sarcophagus, are the most familiar. General MacArthur Gave Truman Report On Asia

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—President Truman's order sending American sea and air forces into action in Asia will go down in history as one of the most extraordinary steps ever taken by an American president. It can be comprehended only in the framework of a world divided into two power complexes with nothing, or almost nothing, standing between them.

Here is the background, as yet untold, of Gen. MacArthur what led up to that decision. It goes back in reality considerably before the attack by the North Koreans on the South Korean republic.

When General Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, and Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson conferred with General Douglas MacArthur in Tokyo last week, they heard some pretty strong talk. MacArthur expressed the view that American policy up to this point in Asia had been a disaster. Moreover, he stressed the immediacy of the dangers facing the United States at a half-dozen points in Asia.

Bombers Sent Out

On the basis of this talk, plus what they had already learned in the Philippines and Korea, Bradley and Johnson took some preliminary precautions. A detail of American bombers, including the newest and largest types, was ordered to the Far East immediately.

This was prior to the return of the JCS chairman and the defense secretary. They reached Washington in their own plane on Saturday at 11:45 a.m., less than 12 hours before the Korean attack

They brought with them a top-secret document of the highest significance. It was a memorandum prepared by General Douglas MacArthur for the president. MacArthur reported directly to the president what he had told Bradley and Johnson—that American policy had been a disaster and threatened a worse disaster.

But the dynamic general went even further. He told the president there was a clear and present danger of new Communist outbreaks at one of the Asian's tension points. He did not, of course, say it in Korea. Bradley and Johnson themselves had, however, been given a detailed picture of Communist strength and its potentialities in North Korea.

Three Danger Points

Bradley and Johnson had returned convinced that a new activist policy was essential unless the United States was prepared to see all of Asia go Communist. Such a decision had been taken by a unanimous vote of the joint chiefs of staff as long ago as last January. The recommendations of the JCS at that time involved three danger points:

1. Formosa and the need to deploy units of the American fleet in order to prevent capture of that island by Communist China.

2. Philippines where the JCS were convinced of the urgent necessity for increasing American strength in the bases granted the U.S. under treaty rights with the Philippine government.

3. Military aid to Indo-China where the hard-pressed French were threatened by the rebels under Communist-trained Ho Chi-Minh.

The activist policy advocated by the JCS was overruled in the national security council. Secretary of State Dean Acheson believed the time had not yet come that had been agreed to by the three services. In the five months that have intervened scarcely a week has gone by that the patient general has not firmly but politely, in accord with his view of the subordinate role the military man must always take, pressed the JCS recommendations.

MacArthur Urged Action

When the Korean attack broke, Bradley and Johnson both pleaded for immediate and all-out action in accord with the joint chiefs' plan. They argued that Korea was merely one—and a minor testing point. Success there, they told the president, would embolden the Russians to move into every area where a partial vacuum of power existed.

Re-enforcing their argument was the MacArthur memorandum. MacArthur had hinted to his visitors that if some action did not result, he might feel compelled to return to America and give the public the facts as he saw them.

In this setting the specific decision on helping the South Koreans seemed of almost minor importance. So much more was at stake as the president prepared to take the fateful decision. The Korean decision was never complicated by any consideration that American troops might be sent in, since U.S. troop strength in the Far East simply would not permit such a move.

Finally—and perhaps inevitably—the president came down on the side of action. The order to MacArthur on the use of American planes went out 10 hours in advance of the president's announcement.

So the die was cast. Those who urged far-reaching action did so realizing full well it could mean war. But they were convinced that piecemeal appeasement in the Pacific would certainly bring conflict and on the most disadvantageous terms for this country.

Iron Ore Season Well Under Way

The season's iron ore traffic is well underway for the 66th time since the Gogebic range made its first shipment from the Colby mine at Bessemer, Mich., in 1884.

Six companies hold the production front of iron ore on the Gogebic range in the 14 miles from Montreal, Wis., to Wakefield, Mich. These companies are the Pickands Mather & Co., Oliver Iron Mining Co., Republic Steel Corp., Oglebay, Norton & Co., Jones & Laughlin Ore Co., and Zontelli Brothers. The latter firm, new on the range is operating a heavy media separator plant which concentrates lean iron ore stockpiles at the Pabst mine, Ironwood, Mich. The plant was completed late in the 1949 season and is now in its first full season of operation. Harry Gerber is in charge.

Pickards Mather & Co., representing the Youngstown Mines Corp., and other interests, operates the Newport, Anvil-Palms, Plymouth and Sundy Lake mines in Michigan and the Cary mine in Wisconsin all on the Gogebic range. Republic Steel Corp., operates the Penokee mine at Ironwood, Mich. Oglebay, Norton & Co., operates the Montreal mine in Wisconsin and the Eureka mine in Michigan.

The Oliver Iron Mining Co. operates the Geneva mine, located between Bessemer and Ironwood, Mich. Most easterly active operation on the Gogebic range is the Vicar mine of the Jones & Laughlin Ore Co., situated just east of Wakefield, Mich.

The C. & N. W. Ry has a new diesel locomotive this season which pulls trains of iron ore to the ore loading docks at Ashland, Wis., a 40-mile haul.

Gondola-type cars appeared this season on the Gogebic range which transport iron ore from Ironwood all-rail to a blast furnace at Granite Head, Ill., near St. Louis. Granite City is the location of the Koppers Co., Inc., which operates two blast furnaces. This plant also receives all-rail iron ore from the Cuyuna range, Crow Wing county, Minnesota, and also Fillmore county, in southern Minnesota.

History Repeats Itself On A Sunday Afternoon

By ROBERT C. RUARK

NEW YORK—The day was hot but nice in the country, and we were sitting around in shorts watching the television. The Dodgers were behind 5-2. Ralph Kiner of the Pirates was murdering them. Then the announcement came that the United Nations was sitting in special session to decide what to do about the war in Korea, and that the Russians were not attending the meeting.

The Dodgers had a big inning, and tied up the score, and for a second it was exciting. A brand-new ball game, the announcer said. And then Kiner did it to them again with a double with two on, and more runs scored. Somebody snapped off the television.

Always On Sunday

One of the guests was in the radio business. He called his station in New York. Another was a newspaperman. He called his office. The host was a broker, taking it easy for the summer.

"I think I'd best go to town early tomorrow instead of waiting until Tuesday," he told his wife.

"Why do they always have to start these things on Sunday?" Somebody asked querulously.

"I guess it's because the people who start them figure that the bloated capitalists are all off on week ends, like us," somebody else said.

Somebody made a joke about being 4-F, as a result of the last war.

"I was an air-raid warden once," somebody else said. Nobody laughed.

Like Old Times

All of a sudden I had that old queer feeling of having been through the whole thing before. The announcement on the radio, riding through Florida, that the Nazis had marched into Poland. And that other Sunday in Griffith stadium in Washington, nine years ago, when the word first came to the press box that the Japs had hit Pearl.

Nobody made any brave or warlike statements, then. A sportswriter stood up behind me and cleared his throat.

"I guess I better go home and burn all my Japanese lanterns," he said.

The office got through to me in the press box and told me to get to the public address system and tell all the stray reporters, editors and printers who were watching the Redskins play the Philadelphia Eagles to hustle into the office. One member of the press was having a cocktail party that day. As guests stopped by, they got one drink and the news that we were at war. Few people believed it, they took a lot of convincing. The whole thing seemed so casual. Like last Sunday afternoon.

I never did find out who won that football game. We started putting out extras every hour on the hour, and three days later I got to bed. I never covered another speck of sports, and pretty soon I was in the navy and then away for three years. It never did seem real.

When I saw a ship blow up or ducked some bombs or cringed before flak or sweated in the Solomons or played a horse in Australia it all seemed like the extension of a dream. The last real thing I remembered was that I suddenly had lost interest in a football game on Dec. 7, 1941.

And so it occurs that this is the way wars start, for common folks. You are playing tennis or sipping a drink or watching the Dodgers or covering a ball game and the little bulletin smacks you in the eye. First the bulletins are about incidents and then they are about Centuries ago man invented gunpowder. Then he learned how to use that gunpowder to create beauty!

And so, on the Fourth of July we celebrate Independence with fireworks.

Our own generation has unleashed the stupendous power of the atom. Will we be so busy building bigger and more destructive bombs that it will take us centuries to learn how to use that atomic power to create beauty?

Our Independence will never be complete until all of our implements of war can safely be turned into instruments to create beauty. And the only course of life which has ever given promise of such a day is the Christian religion our churches teach.

America led the world to Democracy. America can lead the world to Christ!

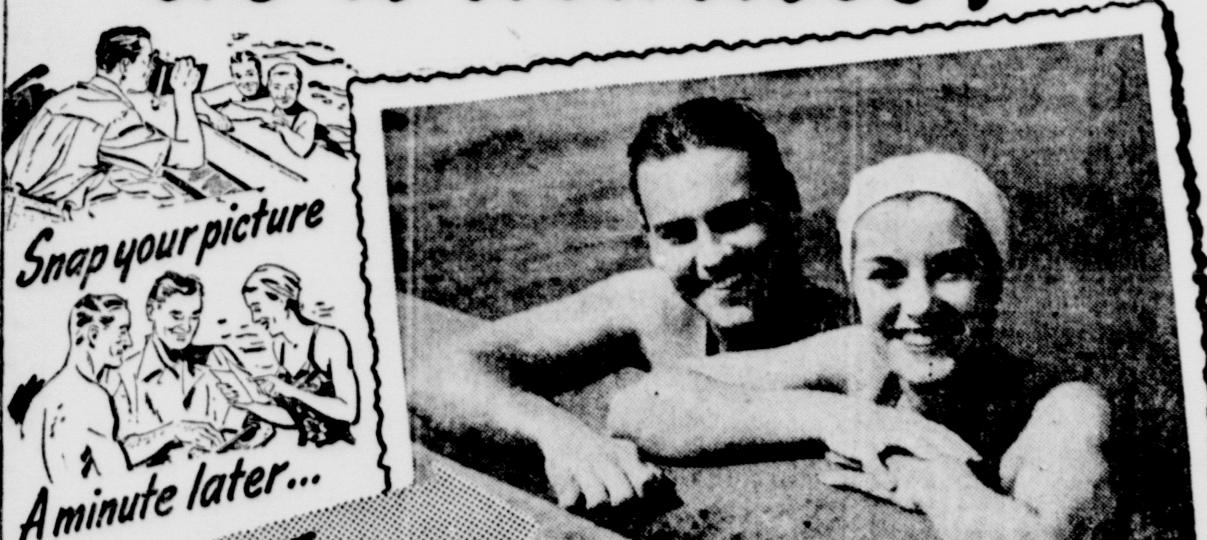

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Lansing Graft Hearing Heads For U. S. Court

LANSING—(P)—The six-year-old convictions of Finance company executives and former legislators for graft conspiracy appears to be headed for the United States supreme court.

For the second time the conviction of 11 still fighting the case was upheld by a 3 to 2 decision of the State Supreme Court. The court acted on a rehearing of its previous 3-2 decision six months ago.

The 11 are all that remain of 20 convicted in 1944 of giving and accepting bribes to influence the 1939 legislature in its consideration of bills regulating the Finance company business.

Three Disqualified

The affirming and dissenting justices did not deviate materially from their earlier decision except to answer the defense argument that more than three justices of the eight-man bench should be required to uphold a conviction.

The controlling opinion said that three of the eight had disqualified themselves from the case because of previous association with it or the defendants and that the defense had raised no objection when it submitted its appeal.

Justices Walter H. North, Edward M. Sharpe and Emerson R. Boyles voted for conviction, justices George E. Bushnell and Neil E. Reid voted for dismissal and Justices John R. Dethmers, Henry M. Butzel and Leland W. Carr absented themselves from the case.

DisbarmentAppealed

Those involved in the rehearing included Abraham Cooper of Detroit, president of the Union Investment company; George W. Omach of South Bend, Ind., general counsel for Associates Discounts Corp.; John Hancock of Detroit, official of the Associates Discount;

Former legislators Adam W. Sumeracki, Walter N. Stockfish, Joseph L. Kaminski, Joseph J. Kowalski, William M. Bradley, Earl C. Gallagher and Ernest G. Nagel of Detroit and Henry F. Shea of Lansing and Calumet.

The court agreed to hear an appeal from Harold H. Emmons of Detroit from a decision of three circuit judges refusing him reinstatement as a member of the bar. Emmons was disbarred in 1946 on charges of fraud in connection with the handling of a trust fund for crippled children created by the late George H. Cummings, wealthy Detroiter.

Negaunee Mine To Be Opened

Jones & Laughlin
Will Sink Shaft

NEGAUNEE, Mich.—(Special)—Another million ton a year iron mining property may be in production within four years.

The Jones and Laughlin Ore Co. announce Thursday shaft sinking operations at the Tracy Mine are scheduled to begin next fall, first shipments of iron ore are expected by 1954 and the million ton output mark may be attained within 10 years.

Drilling and test pitting at the mine site—located on Breitung-Hemmatite lands—has been in progress since 1943, according to Harry S. Peterson, general superintendent. The Breitung-Hemmatite lands consists of more than 1,000 acres within the city limits of Negaunee.

The lands were acquired by Jones and Laughlin Nov. 11, 1921. Except for leasing to and mining by the North Range Mining Co., there had been no activity on the property until the exploration program began in 1943.

The shaft, which derives its name from a man named Thomas Tracy who once held the lease to the property, will be sunk to a depth of 2,000 feet or more.

Only three iron mining properties in Michigan ever have produced as much as a million tons of ore in one year. The Mather Mine, newest Marquette Range producer and largest underground iron mine in the world, is in the million ton class now. The Negaunee Mine, also on this range, and the Montreal Mine on the Gogebic Range are the only others ever to have reached that figure.

A late nesting season is not necessarily bad for the reproduction of the popular game birds because there is less chance of the weather turning bad enough to kill eggs and chicks.

Only one brood of hatched chicks was seen in the first two weeks of the count, compared with 14 last year. Sixteen nests were counted, half as many as last year. Nests this year averaged 11.5 eggs each.

CLASS SCHEDULING — This is how Principal Edward E. Edick of the Escanaba senior high school operates his schedule box to assign students to the various classes at the opening of a school term. School principals all over the country are now using the schedule system developed by the Escanaba educator. (Daily Press Photo)

Edick Schedule System Used All Over Country

A system devised by Edward E. Edick, Escanaba senior high school principal, to schedule students for their various classes has been adopted by more than a thousand high schools in the 48 states of the Union.

Edick developed his scheduling system shortly after he became high school principal here in 1935. He made a shallow box with pigeon-holes and had a number of 3 by 5 inch cards printed.

The cards were perforated in seven sections, each three inches long and about five-sevenths of an inch wide. On each section was provided a place for the student to write his name, grade and study subject.

System is Copyrighted

Other principals displayed much interest in the Escanaba school principal's plan. A couple years ago it occurred to Edick that he might be able to market his idea. He wrote a pamphlet on the subject, and had it copyrighted as the Edick Schedule System.

Edick sent 9,000 circular letters to high school principals last year and received 1,500 orders for the pamphlet. Although the pamphlet described how to make the schedule box and filing cards, many of the purchasers expressed a desire to purchase this material.

The orders for filing cards promise to be more profitable than the sale of the pamphlets. Last year, Edick sold 80,000 printed, perforated cards, and this year the card sales have mounted to 225,000. He also has received orders for 150 schedule boxes.

Parke County, Indiana, Has 41 Covered Bridges

By PETER EDSON

ROCKVILLE, Ind.—(NEA)—Parke County, Indiana, of which Rockville (pop. 2,000) is the capital boasts more old-fashioned wooden, covered bridges than any county in the Hoosier state. They number 41. There were 42 but one burned in 1943. All 41, however, are in daily use and give evidence that they will continue in regular service for some years to come. So this is covered bridge fans' paradise.

Parke County can't claim more covered bridges than any other county in the U. S. Parke County ranks third in this respect. Noble County, Ohio, has 54. It is in southeastern Ohio. Tyler County, Pennsylvania, just across the Ohio river from Noble County, Ohio, ranks second.

Parke County, Indiana, does, however, claim to have the longest single-span covered bridge in the country. It is the Jackson bridge, across Sugar Creek, just a few miles above where it flows into the Wabash river, and a few miles below beautiful Turkey Run State Park.

The Jackson span is a full 200 feet long. It was built in 1861, and it has given continuous service ever since, on the same foundation. The oldest covered bridge in these parts is Crooks bridge, built in 1856, which would make it 94 years old. The newest was built in 1920.

Local historian and authority on covered bridges in Parke County is a retired Hoosier schoolmaster, J. G. Hirsbrunner of Rockville. He is a relative by marriage of J. A. Britton, who built 16 of the Parke County bridges. The other big covered bridge builder was J. J. Daniels, with 11 spans to his credit.

Neither Britton nor Daniels was an engineer. Both were practical carpenters and contractors. But they built well, and the monument to their skill and to their successors' skill is found in their spans still standing across Big Raccoon, Little Raccoon and Sugar Creeks.

Built By Hand and Built Well

The old bridge builders had no power tools and only the most primitive cranes and hand or horse-powered winches. Some of the timbers were, of course, cut by steam mill power saws. But mostly they were built by hand, the bridges built by main strength and awkwardness.

Mr. Hirsbrunner tells one story about the old Mansfield covered bridge which was built in 1867 for a 14-ton load limit. Most of them are rated at only eight or ten tons' capacity today.

Anyway, three trucks came down the road with heavy loads. The first truck stalled before it got across the span. The other two trucks, not knowing that the first was stalled, and not being able to see it because of the cover and siding, followed it out over the water.

It wasn't till after the first truck was repaired and all three had cleared the bridge that the drivers figured they had taken a pretty big risk. When they added up their combined loaded weights, they found the total came to 51 tons. In other words, the bridge had been built with a safety factor of at least three.

Most of the bridges have 8x8-inch oak for their main timbers. The posts are doubled, and in a few cases tapered at the ends to reduce weight yet give greatest strength in the center. Sills are also doubled on many bridges. The siding in the older bridges was mostly yellow poplar, which grows in Indiana. But a few of the more recently built bridges have pine siding, which was evidently shipped in.

Flooring has, of course, been replaced many times. But the contracts for reflooring still carry the old specifications for three-inch oak planks. Only one of the bridges—the Jackson bridge of 1861—now has a corrugated metal roof, which was put over the original covering. All the others have wooden shingles.

All the Park County bridges are built on what is known as the Burr truss design. Theodore Burr was an engineer from the east, and he built many of the covered bridges in New York state.

Burr was quite a handy man with the bottle and there is a legend that a Scotch preacher in

New York once complained because one of Burr's jobs wasn't progressing fast enough. The preacher called divine services on the banks of the stream to protest. Burr then sought out the domine and told him, "Your business is to preach the Gospel and mine is to build bridges. You mind your business and I'll mind mine."

Most famous, or best known of the Parke County covered bridges is the Narrows Bridge over Sugar Creek, in Turkey Run Park. It's a short but scenic hike in this famous and well-run Hoosier resort.

The so-called Walter engine is a German development which uses hydrogen peroxide. It is extremely efficient for submarine use, particularly for emergency speeds of 25 knots, but it is uneconomical because it requires peroxide of 90 per cent purity.

Camp Fire Girls To Attend Outdoor Education Camp

Escanaba Camp Fire girls will attend the Menominee County Outdoor Education camp at Wells State Park, Stephenson, Mich., July 17-24.

The Outdoor Education camp is used by various groups during the summer months, one week being set aside for each group. A regular staff is employed for the summer camping period.

In addition to the staff provided, Escanaba will send two counselors with its Camp Fire group so that the girls may work on advancement of ranks and participation in Campfire activities.

These two counselors are Mary Sue Farrell, senior counselor and holder of the Red Cross Instructor's certificate, and Suzanne Lindstrom, junior counselor. Miss Farrell graduated from Michigan State Normal college at Ypsilanti this year and Miss Lindstrom graduated from Escanaba senior high school.

Camp Staff

Regular camp staff members are as follows:

Mrs. Lenora Lienna, camp director for past four years, Stephenson elementary school principal, special outdoor education at St. Mary's camp near Battle Creek.

Francie Cappert, assistant director, in charge of waterfront activities, Red Cross Instructor certificate.

The finished Center will have the chapel as its focal point with cabins in a semi-circle around it, each facing or half facing the lake.

The building program also calls for construction of a permanent mess-hall with seating capacity of 100. This structure will be situated near the lake.

The first actual use of the Center will be a laymen's conference September 22, preceded by a conference for the clergy.

Episcopal Center At Little Lake Will Be Dedicated

Dedication of the Conference Center of the Episcopal diocese of Northern Michigan at Little Lake will take place Sunday, July 9, at 4, it is announced by Bishop Herman R. Page.

The property purchased from Mrs. Fanny Maitland Venneema in January, 1949, has 1,000 feet of frontage, an excellent sand beach and a fine stand of timber.

Work on the Center was begun last year. Underbrush was cleared and the Holy Innocent's chapel moved there from Gwinn. The basement has been built to provide a temporary dormitory with a large fireplace. A wash house and the first four of the contemplated eight cabins are being completed and remodeling and modernizing a portion of the camp house is in progress.

Michigan Associated Telephone Company Rate Case Resumed

LANSING—(P)—Interrupted by a flood of personal protests, Michigan Associated Telephone Co. has resumed presentation of its case for $1,000,000 annual rate increase.

Following the start of testimony by H. R. Christiansen, company president and general manager, the hearing was moved from the Michigan Public Service Commission hearing room to the house of representatives chamber to accommodate the approximately 200 protesters.

Individual customers and their representatives universally urged the commission to refuse any rate boost until the company, second largest in the state, improves its service.

The company's application would mean rate increases averaging $1.50 a month for some 75,000 users in 72 cities and 27 counties. Muskegon with 21,000 customers is the company's largest exchange and its headquarters.

In addition to vigorous protests and a formal answer by City Attorney H. Winston Hathaway of Muskegon, protests were registered by representatives of Coldwater, Blissfield, Cass City, Grand Ledge, De Witt, Harbor Beach, Hart, L'Anse, Ludington, Manistique, Milford, White Pigeon, Sturgis, Three Rivers and Constantine among others.

Some very tempting prizes are being offered winners in the Children's parade which will be featured at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon—the second of Manistique's homecoming celebration.

This will be one of the outstanding features of the three big days, is already assured, because many young people have signified their intention of participating. Mrs. E. L. Lundstrom chairman of the civic committee of the Manistique Women's Club, in charge of the parade activities, announced that members are well pleased with the results of their efforts.

Costume judging will be governed by the ages of the contestants, with age groups between three and twelve years.

There will be first and second prizes for the best decorated costume, bicycle, doll buggy, scooter, wagon, pet and comics.

There will also be a prize for the child carrying the longest distance the largest family group.

The line of march is between the high school and Triangle park near the post office. The distance is short—just far enough to permit the youngsters to show off to the best advantage.

The committee stresses the fact that there will be a prize for every child who comes dressed to take part in this event and real attractive prizes to the children winning top prizes.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to all the kind relatives, neighbors and friends who assisted us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved husband and father. We are very grateful to Rev. "With the proceeds we secure through this venture, we hope to be able to sponsor a more complete program for Manistique's children with added facilities at the club rooms for furthering youth work."

Other chairman in this project are Lionel Mercier, treasurer; Walter Nelson, tickets for underprivileged children, Chauncy Hinkson, grounds and license; Howard Hewitt, police and traffic.

New Members Are Enrolled In Jr. School Band

The Manistique Junior School Band is getting off to a good start with 28 new recruits enrolled thus far this season, Joseph Giovannini, director announces.

The Junior and Senior Bands under Mr. Giovannini's direction represent a never ending change in personnel and in development.

"Just about the time we get a band functioning to a degree which approximates professional finesse, along comes graduation and robs us of at least a third of our seasoned players," said the band leader.

This year the senior band was particularly hard hit by graduation and Mr. Giovannini would be discouraged were it not for the fact that a lot of junior band players have attained sufficient proficiency to play in next year's senior band.

The band leader is particularly anxious to enroll members who will be interested in learning to play the bass drum and a baritone saxophone.

Practices are being held at the school each week day afternoon.

Chicago To Have A Country Fair

CHICAGO — (P) — Fair goers visiting the Chicago Fair of 1950 will see a real country fair. The fair-within-a-fair will feature educational exhibits. They will tell the story of how meat moves from the farm to the table. It will be sponsored by Armour and Co., meat packers.

Crosby Kelly, executive manager of the Chicago Lakefront Exposition, said more than 100 exhibits of cattle, sheep and hogs are scheduled for display. Livestock exhibits will show how America's beef supply developed from the buffalo of the Western Plains and the Texas long horn steer to the present-day breeds of beef animals. The Chicago Fair runs through Labor Day.

Michigan Associated Telephone Company Rate Case Resumed

LANSING—(P)—Interrupted by a flood of personal protests, Michigan Associated Telephone Co. has resumed presentation of its case for a $1,000,000 annual rate increase.

Following the start of testimony by H. R. Christensen, company president and general manager, the hearing was moved from the Michigan Public Service Commission hearing room to the house of representatives chamber to accommodate the approximately 200 protesters.

Individual customers and their representatives universally urged the commission to refuse any rate boost until the company, second largest in the state, improves its service.

The company's application would mean rate increases averaging $1.50 a month for some 75,000 users in 72 cities and 27 counties. Muskegon with 21,000 customers is the company's largest exchange and its headquarters.

In addition to vigorous protests and a formal answer by Attorney H. Winston Hathaway of Muskegon, protests were registered by representatives of Coldwater, Blissfield, Cass City, Grand Ledge, De Witt, Harbor Beach, Hart, L'Anse, Ludington, Manistique, Milford, White Pigeon, Sturgis, Three Rivers and Constantine among others.

Many To Enter Kiddie Parade

Tempting Prizes For Best Get-Up

Some very tempting prizes are being offered winners in the children's parade which will be featured at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon—the second of Manistique's homecoming celebration.

This will be one of the outstanding features of the three big days, is already assured, because many young people have signified their intention of participating. Mrs. E. L. Lundstrom chairman of the civic committee of the Manistique Woman's Club, in charge of the parade activities, announced that members are very well pleased with the results of their efforts.

Costume judging will be governed by the ages of the contestants, with age groups between three and twelve years.

There will be first and second prizes for the best decorated tricycle, bicycle, doll buggy, scooter, wagon, pet and comics.

There will also be a prize for the child corning the longest distance the largest family group.

The line of march is between the high school and Triangle park near the post office. The distance is short—just far enough to permit the youngsters to show off to the best advantage.

The committee stresses the fact that there will be a prize for every child who comes dressed to take part in this event and real attractive prizes to the children winning top prizes.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to all the kind relatives, neighbors and friends who assisted us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved husband and father. We are very grateful to Rev. Dickson for his comforting words and other manifestations of sympathy, to those who served as pallbearers, furnished their cars, sent floral offerings and to all others who aided us in so many ways.

Perkins Plans Big Celebration

Day-Long Program To Be Held On 4th

Plans have been completed for the big July 4th celebration at Perkins which is being jointly sponsored by the Legion Post and the Perkins Lions club.

The day's fun starts at 9:30 o'clock in the morning with a parade which features the Rock Legion band. Floats will be welcomed in the parade. Prizes are to be awarded for the best floats.

There will be a baseball game between Rock and Perkins at 2:30 o'clock and a softball game between the Rock Lions and the Perkins Bloomer Girls at 6:30.

Bike and running races and other competitive games for youngsters will follow the parade in the morning. There will be a watermelon eating contest, greased pole climb and tug-of-war between St. Nicholas and Perkins.

A dance for which Frank Stropach and his orchestra will play is to be held in the recreation center.

A fireworks display is to be touched off at 10 o'clock.

Refreshments and lunch will be served throughout the day.

Walter Nelson of the Legion Post and Joe DeCemer are co-chairmen of the event. Henry Gustafson is chairman of the parade committee. Gust Klein of the stands and decorations, novelties and concessions are in charge of H. C. Gibbs and G. J. DePuydt while refreshments are being arranged by John DeCemer and Lawrence LaChance. Lunch and the supper are in charge of the Legion Auxiliary. Competitive games will be directed by E. H. Gibbs and Bill DeKeyser and the dance is being arranged by Julian Simnaeve and Adelore Gerou Jr.

First Story Hour Is Well Attended

About 35 children attended the Story hour at the Recreation center Wednesday afternoon. Following the story hour games were played out on the field until about 4 o'clock.

The tots who attended were Martha and Christine Mathison, Ann VanHorn, Grace Waigle, Willy Fink, Wendell Beauchamp, Diane Kay Washburn, Patty Rhode, Jimmy Sabourin, Marcia Johnson, Sandy Sutter, David Neff, Mary Johnson, Mitys Erickson, Melissa Sundblad, Clifford Olson, Bill Potvin, Phil Clish, Wesley Clish, Karen Anderson, Tommy Finlan, Larry Beach, Margaret and Sally Creten, Linda Lambreg, Sharon Clause, Janice and Lorraine McCauley, Joyce and Mary Druding, Charles Strom and Timothy Peterson.

The date of the next Story and Game Hour will be July 12 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Recreation Center. Others are invited to attend and participate with Mrs. Thora Peterson in handling the anticipated increase of attendance at these games.

St. Germain, Lough Homer As Bears Beat Barks, 4-3

Escanaba Bears and Bark River were even up today following a fair-raising 4-3 victory for Escanaba last night in a game that saw Leftfielder Tom St. Germain blast a home run and two singles and Dick Lough, shortstop smash a home run and a single.

The game had everything, especially a two run Bark River rally in the ninth inning after two men were out and the next batter had two strikes on him.

Until that time, Russ Hiltonen, little fast ball pitcher, had had Bark River eating out of his hand. He had allowed only one run in the third inning on two singles, a walk and a passed ball.

But things broke out in the ninth.

John Hansen, Bark River right-fielder, opened the inning with a single. But it looked all over for the Barks when Harold Kleiman flied out to centerfield and Bob L'Houillier was thrown out at first.

Hit on Head

Dick LeBrasseur, playing his first game for Bark River, had two strikes on him and then was hit on the head by a pitched ball. That put two on base. Eddie Mahnke, Bark River catcher, doubled both Hansen and LeBrasseur home.

Leo Knauf, Bark River manager pinch hit for his pitcher, Ray Menard. Knauf topped the ball a few feet toward first base and, when he threw his bat down, it struck the ball and pushed it farther away from the pursuing Ionne Sedenquist, Bear catcher. Knauf should have been automatically out under rule 49, second 2-B, which says the base runner is out if, after having hit or bunted a ball to fair territory, his bat again hits the ball on or over fair territory and deflects its course."

However, the umpire failed to call him out. That left Knauf and Mahnke on base. Then Hiltonen walked Wally Flath, filling the bases.

Strike Out Kleiman

At this stage of the game, Joe Rademacher relieved Hiltonen. Things looked bad for the Bears when his first two pitches were balls but Rademacher found the plate and tossed three strikes at Clarence Kleiman to end the game.

Escanaba opened scoring in the second on St. Germain's and Lough's home runs, the latter coming with Bill Gustafson on base.

The Bears added another in the fourth on a single by St. Germain, sacrifice by Sedenquist, a fielder's choice and an error by Mahnke in an attempt to pick him off third. Besides pitching five hit ball, Hiltonen cracked out two singles. He struck out 10 batters. Menard, who allowed seven hits, struck out eight.

Bark River's hits were scattered among five players.

Those Fabulous Bosox Tip Philadelphia, 22-14

(By the Associated Press)

gling in fourth place, seven games off the pace.

Their June records will stand for years to come.

Take yesterday's 22-14 wrestle with the Philadelphia A's. Never before in the American league did two clubs run up 36 runs in a nine-inning game.

Then there was the 29-4 slaughter of the St. Louis Browns, June 8—highest score by a major league club since 1897. The day before that it was 20-4.

Still in Fourth

You'd think a club capable of such muscle flexing would be leading the league. But even now, with a seven-game win streak going, the Sox are fourth behind Detroit, New York and Cleveland. In the weird adventure in Shibe park yesterday, Boston scored six in the first, the A's four. At the end of two innings it was 14-14. And no home runs until the seventh when Williams hit his 24th with a man on. That was the only homer.

Detroit maintained its 4½ game lead over New York as both lost. Young Bob Cain of the Chicago White Sox survived a shaky first inning to trim the Tigers, 7-3. Sid Hudson also weathered a first inning blast to give Washington a 12-7 verdict over the Yanks.

Cliff Mapes' three-run homer was the big blow in the Yanks' first inning attack on Hudson. But Joe Ostrowski couldn't protect a 5-1 lead. The Senators knocked him out in the second and hung the loss on reliever Tom Ferrick in the fourth.

Harnischfeger Red Sox won their tenth of the year by defeating White Birch, 5-4, despite a two run homer in the fourth by Clint Manger that tied up the score. The home run was one of the longest seen here this year. Bob Courville allowed the White Birch four hits.

The Harnischfeger White Sox didn't do so well, falling to the Steam Laundry, 14-0, in a game that saw Warren Lee, Ron Noel, Sam Schram, Wally Larson and Ray Bernitt get three hits each.

Dick Freeman's drive to short left field in the first inning was the White Sox' only hit off Bill Benard.

The laundry team will play the Power and Light crew in the preliminary of the Sunday night doubleheader at Memorial field. The first game will be at 7:15.

Ed Gauthier got an inside-the-park homer as the Liberty Loans walloped the Paper Mills, 11-1, behind Kenny Dufresne's neat pitching.

Williams Proves He's Worth It

PHILADELPHIA—(P)—Ted Williams supplied the answer to the popular question: What makes a baseball player worth $125,000 a year?

In a three game series against the Philadelphia Athletics, here is what Williams did:

Hit three home runs and two doubles, scored four runs and batted in 10.

By going six for 14, Williams boosted his batting average to a respectable .434 and set his sights on all kinds of records.

Williams' three homers gave him 24 for the season, in 62 games.

Babe Ruth, in his 60th year, hit his 24th in his 60th game.

By batting in 10 runs, Williams has boosted his league leading total to 80. Lou Gehrig holds the American league record of 184, set in 1931. Stan Hack of the Chicago Cubs owns the major league mark, 199, driven in 1930.

Robinson Homers Twice

Brooklyn retained its half game lead in the National while losing to New York, 11-5. Vern Bickford helped the Dodgers by pitching Boston to a 3-2 night decision over the Phillies. The Giants hopped on Ralph Branca, loser Dan Bankhead and Erv Palley for four runs in the eighth inning to ruin Brooklyn, although Jackie Robinson hit two homers for the Dodgers.

Buddy Kerr's two-run single in the eighth settled a night duel between Bickford and Ken Heintzelman at Boston. Not even Dick Sisler's three doubles and a single in four trips could help the Phils.

Sam Jethroe put on quite a show in the sixth. He reached first on an error, stole second for his 18th theft, then scored from second when Earl Torgeson grounded out, first baseman to the pitcher.

Chicago hung another loss on the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-1, behind Bob Rush's five-hitter. It was the Cards' tenth loss in their last 14 games and Rush's 10th complete game for his ninth win.

Colonels' O'Brien Gets Four Home Runs

(By the Associated Press)

Outfielder Tom O'Brien blasted four home runs last night to give Louisville an even split in a doubleheader with Toledo and keep the Colonels only half a game behind pace-setting Indianapolis in the American Association.

Louisville won the seven inning opener, 7-3. Toledo came back to take the nightcap 10-4.

O'Brien is a former Boston Red Sox and Pittsburgh outfielder.

Indianapolis stayed ahead in the flag race by defeating Columbus 9-6, after bowing to the Red Birds 7-6 in two extra innings of the seven inning inaugural.

Johnny Van Cuyk pitched St. Paul to a 4-2 triumph over Kansas City. Minneapolis scored a 4-3 triumph over Milwaukee.

Tigers Beaten; Meet Cleveland

Red Hot Series Opens In Ohio Tonight

CLEVELAND—(P)—The American league leading Detroit Tigers ran into one of their toughest tests of the season today—a four-game weekend series with the Red hot Cleveland Indians.

Detroit took a 4½ game lead into tonight's opener and called on Lefty Hal Newhouse (6-4) to protect the margin. He already holds one decision over the Indians, a 5-2 win on Memorial Day.

Mike Garcia (5-4) was named to work for the Indians.

The Red Rolfmen regard the Indians as one of the toughest obstacles in their bid for the pennant.

Hutch is Blasted

Detroit closed out a 17-game home stand yesterday by bowing to Bob Cain and the Chicago White Sox 7-3, leaving them with an 11-6 win record in their latest stop at Briggs stadium.

The Tigers pounded Cain for four hits in a two-run first inning but he steadied while the White Sox kept pecking away at Fred Hutchinson's stuff and finally moved out in front 3-2.

Detroit tied it up in the last of the seventh, but then the White Sox struck to get their only victory in the four-game series.

Two were out in the Chicago eighth before the White Sox ripped out four consecutive singles off Hutchinson to send over two runs and give them a 5-3 lead.

Hutchinson was lifted in the ninth after giving up a hit to the first batter, but his replacement, Saul Rogovin, proved ineffective. Two more Chicago runs came over to give the White Sox their 7-3 win.

Clippers Explode To Trounce Flint

(By the Associated Press)

Muskogee's Clippers didn't look much like cellar-dwellers in the last inning of their Central league game with the pace-setting Flint Arrows last night.

Trailing 5-4, the Clippers exploded in the ninth with two home runs, a triple, three doubles and a single to send seven runs in and win 11-5.

The Grand Rapids Jets cut Flint's margin to eight games by blanking Dayton

Kaiser-Frazer Gives Pensions

Auto Workers Praise Liberal Agreement

DETROIT.—(P)—Kaiser-Frazer Corp., in operation only since the end of World War II, has worked out a pension plan that will pay some employees $50 a month after only five years' service.

The plan, signed yesterday by K-F and the CIO United Auto Workers, provides $100-a-month pensions, including federal social security, for workers who retire at 65 after working 25 years.

The CIO United Auto Workers called the agreement "one of the best to date" in the auto industry.

Trust Fund Set Up

Besides pensions, the UAW got a completely company-financed hospital-medical-insurance agreement that it said was superior to most others in the industry.

Kaiser Frazer agreed to put six cents an hour for each of its 10,000 workers into a trust fund to pay the pensions. In addition, it lays aside seven and two thirds cents for each hour worked for hospital-medical-insurance benefits.

The corporation has plants at nearby Willow Run, Detroit, Jackson and Dowagiac.

This is how the pension system will work:

Each employee who retires at 65 with five or more years' service will receive a monthly pension of $50 plus $2.50 for each year between five and 25.

May Go To $125

There is no compulsory retirement age, but a joint company-union administrative board will appoint a physician to determine whether an employee is able to do his work.

If federal social security is boosted, the K-F full pensions will amount to $125 a month.

The union said 125 Kaiser-Frazer workers, who kept their seniority when K-F took over the old Graham-Paige Motors Corp., are eligible now to retire on full pensions.

Farm Vacation Fatal To Detroit Plumber

MESICK, Mich.—(P)—William R. Florence, 29, Detroit carpenter and plumber, was electrocuted yesterday when a long pipe he was holding touched a high tension wire.

Florence, who had come here with his wife and three small children for a two-week vacation, was working on the farm of his brother-in-law, Joe LaLonde. LaLonde suffered minor burns and shok.

Funeral services and burial will be at Reading, Mass., the home of Florence's parents.

Mesick is 25 miles northwest of Cadillac.

Philadelphia Chemist Will Plead Guilty On Charge Of Aiding Spy

NEW YORK—(P)—Harry Gold, 39-year-old Philadelphia chemist indicted on a charge of giving atomic secrets to the Russians, has agreed to plead guilty and his case will be transferred to the U. S. district court in his home city.

Gold is accused of being a go-between for Dr. Klaus Fuchs, convicted British scientist, and members of a Soviet spy ring. He was arrested May 23 in Philadelphia by FBI agents and since has been held in $100,000 bail there.

He knocked down a post and tangled in electric wire. The wires shorted and a fire started. The barn burned down, and farmer Jefferson lost three calves, a pig, 75 bushels of alfalfa and several pieces of machinery.

The bull strolled out without a scratch.

Kenneth Heafield Is Full Professor At Michigan Tech

Kenneth Heafield, son of Mrs. Edith Heafield of Garden, has been promoted to the rank of full professor of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology, effective July 1.

Professor Heafield is chairman of the department of language at the Sault Ste. Marie branch. His associate professorship is in English. He joined the college faculty in October of 1946 as an instructor was promoted to assistant professor in 1947.

Heafield holds the A.B. degree from Olivet college and the M.A. from the University of Michigan. He has taught at Olivet college and in the public school systems of several Michigan communities.

He was personnel officer with the U. S. Navy during World War II.

Pistol Bullet Taken From Man's Head, Embedded 12 Years

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—(P)—A pistol bullet was removed yesterday from a man's head where it had been embedded 12 years.

The surgeons who performed the delicate four and one-half hour operation on Jack Daniels, 26, described his prospects for recovery as "good."

Daniels, a farmer of Jamestown, Ark., was 14 when a neighbor mistook him for a chicken thief and fired at him. A .45 caliber bullet struck him high in the forehead. He recovered from the wound and resumed normal activities.

Later he married. He and his wife have two children.

About eight months ago, Daniels began to lose physical coordination. He recalled the bullet. Examination indicated it had gravitated toward the back of his skull and downward and was interfering with that portion of the brain which controls the muscles.

Airliner Noses In; 29 Escape Injury

HYANNIS, Mass.—(P)—Twenty-nine passengers escaped injury when the nose landing gear of a Northeast Airline transport collapsed as it landed here last night.

The craft slid about 100 yards on its nose before it came to a stop, resting on its nose and the two main wheels under the wings. Seat belts held passengers fast.

The transport was enroute from Boston to New York by way of Hyannis.

Capt. George H. Hamilton of Cambridge, Mass., pilot of the four-engine DC-4, said the plane was rolling along the runway at about 70 miles an hour when the nose gear gave way.

Stewardess Georgia Record reported that "everybody on board was calm." About a fourth of the passengers were women.

Capt. Hamilton said it was his first accident in seven and a half years with the line.

Streptomycin Halts Radiation Infection, Scientists Discover

CHICAGO—(P)—University of Chicago scientists say they can slash the death rate sharply in usually fatal doses of atomic radiation.

So far all their work has been done with animals. But the research is designed to save human radiation victims, they disclosed today.

They found that streptomycin, one of the older antibiotics, is highly effective in halting the once mysterious fatal infections that follow heavy exposure to radiation.

In one group of experimental animals, the streptomycin treatment brought the death rate down to 14 per cent, compared with the 60 per cent that occurred among untreated animals.
